G2FO
GOING TO FINISH ON TIME

INFORMATION SESSION 2014
Did you know?

- Most students who graduate from college do not do so on-time?
- Most students who go to college part-time don’t finish at all?
- Leeward CC’s average on-time graduation rate is 11%
So What?

- The longer it takes for you to graduate community college, the more likely you will lose your financial aid and run out of money before you finish your bachelors degree.
What is G2FO?

- G2FO is a program only offered at LeewardCC Wai’anae.
- It offers academic, personal, and financial support for students who want to commit to full-time study in order to graduate on-time.
How will G2FO help me to graduate on-time?

- Regular and frequent access to your G2FO support team who will assist and guide you as you navigate college
- Classes with a small connected community of students who support each other
What are the other benefits?

- Free textbooks for up to ten G2FO cohort courses!
- $500 scholarships when you meet specific credit milestones (15, 30, & 45 college-level credits)!
- A consolidated course schedule so you can plan your life outside of college.
What else will I have to do in G2FO?

In addition to taking 4-5 courses each semester, you are required to:

- Attend 2-day orientation in August
- Attend weekly College Success Seminar during the fall and spring semesters
- Meet with G2FO support staff twice a month
- Meet weekly with a writing and math tutor
Selection Criteria for New Students

- Be eligible to take ENG 100 or ENG 24 in the fall semester
- Be eligible for the Pell grant based on completion of the FAFSA or have the means to pay for full-time tuition
- Major in Liberal Arts and plan to earn an AA degree at Leeward
- Agree to full time study at LCCW for at least one year
