Welcome Back to Wayde Oshiro...

...Our New Head Librarian

It’s an exciting time for the Library. Not only have we welcomed Wayde Oshiro back to the Leeward Campus as our new head librarian, but there are two major events we’ll be hosting in April and May.

National Library Week (April 14-17) and “The Final Countdown” (April 30-May 1) will contain several fun, interactive programs. Please join us as we celebrate the work we do as your Library and the end of the semester!

Take our survey!
Our survey - there will be both a print and online version - will be released on 4/14/14 (Mon). Don’t miss out on an opportunity to tell us how we are doing! We appreciate your input!

WHAT IS NAT’L LIBRARY WEEK?

First sponsored in 1958, NLW is a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA) and libraries across the country each April. It is a time to celebrate the contributions of our nation’s libraries and librarians and to promote library use and support. All types of libraries - school, public, academic and special - participate.

- National Library Workers Day: 4/15/14
- National Bookmobile Day: 4/16/14
- Teen Literature Day: 4/17/14

EDIBLE BOOK CONTEST

Stop by the Library from Mon, April 14 - Wed, April 16 to view samples of “Edible Books”. The contest will be held on Thurs, April 17. Anyone is welcome to submit an entry. All entries must be based on a non-fiction or fiction book or character. At least 95% of the creation must be edible.

Voting will be held from 11-1 on Thurs, April 17. To support the Hawaii Food Bank’s Food Drive, anyone who wishes to vote must present one canned good or donate $1 to obtain one voting card. Voters can submit multiple ballots. The two winners will receive gift cards.

Join in the festivities! All food will be consumed following the announcement of the winners. The entry form and contest rules can be found here.
