SUCCESS CONNECTION WORKSHOP

Writing Clearly and Concisely for Science

Wednesday, 10/18/2023

12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

via ZOOM

Presented by Anika Gearhart

Writing for science requires a conscious effort to focus on the facts of a topic rather than our own opinions and beliefs, a task that can be challenging for many students (and seasoned researchers!). In this workshop, you will learn skills that will help you create a clear, concise, and objective paper that focuses on informing, rather than persuading, your reader.
