The Student Activities Board at Leeward Community College CHARTER

The Board of Regents of the University of Hawai'i is established by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii in revised statues as its governing body. The Board of Regents delegates its authority to approve student government constitutions and constitutional amendments and budgets to the President or his or her designee (BOR policies, Ch. 7 Sec. 7-3a).

The Office of the Vice President for Community Colleges has further delegated that authority to the Chancellor of each institution (Vice President's guidelines).

The Constitution of the Associated Students of the University of Hawai'i at Leeward Community College was ratified by the newly student body elected 2009 - 2010 Student Government by a majority vote during the Spring 2009 elections. In Article VIII of The Constitution of the Associated Students of the University of Hawai'i at Leeward Community College states that The Student Activities Board (SAB) shall be a separately operated entity from the Student Government. It will operate under its own Charter and conduct business including, but not limited to: contests, performances, social activities, festivals, sports, concerts, community events, forums, demonstrations, and awareness events.

The Charter for the Student Activities Board at Leeward Community College was approved by the 2014 – 2015 Student Government and ratified by a majority vote during the Spring 2015 elections.

The Student Activities Board at Leeward Community College are subject to and will comply with all Federal and State laws, as well as University of Hawai'i Board of Regents rules and regulations.

The 2014-2015 ASUH-Leeward CC Student Government President, Trong Dang, the 2014-2015 Student Activities Board Co-Chairs Kayla Cadiz and Brandon Prohaska, and Chancellor, Manuel Cabral as cosignatories activate this Charter for the Student Activities Board at Leeward Community College.
